

MEADOWLODGE BIBLE CAMP COUNSELOR TRAINING PROGRAM APPLICATION FORM (2025)

Thanks for your interest in the Counselor Training Program!!

CTP is a discipleship training and practical service program for youth ages 14-17, and runs overnight during Day Camp. You will have lots of opportunity to learn, reflect, and grow. Each participant will experience a variety of camp roles, including junior counselor, chore or maintenance helper, kitchen helper, and activity leader.

CTP starts the evening before Day Camp begins, on Sunday, July 6, and wraps up the morning after Day Camp ends, on Friday, July 11. You will receive more details, with confirmation of your acceptance to the program, in early June.

Please submit your application before the end of May.

STATEMENT OF FAITH

Contained in the following statement are some of the doctrines held and taught by those to whom God has entrusted the ownership and operation of Meadowlodge Bible Camp. Those applying to work at MBC should either subscribe to them fully or, prior to serving at camp, check with the organization in the event of a point of disagreement.

1. The Bible is God's message to mankind and without error as originally given.
2. God is triune: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
3. All the human race are sinners by birth and practice, with the exception of Jesus Christ, who was God manifest in the flesh.
4. Satan exists and is active in the world today.
5. The only way of salvation is through personal acceptance of the substitutionary work of Jesus Christ on the cross and his consequent resurrection.
6. There is eternal bliss for the saved and eternal damnation for the lost.
7. Baptism by immersion and the Lord's Supper are the two ordinances of the Church.
8. The Lord Jesus Christ will return for His Church and will also come in judgment of the world and to set up His kingdom.
9. The Bible teaches that all who have accepted Jesus Christ as Saviour are to order their lives and conduct according to its instruction.

I agree with the MBC Statement of Faith described above:
