All our staff are volunteers. We are not equipped to handle high risk special needs situations.

In the case of dietary restrictions, we ask that you bring your own substitutions, and we will do our best to accommodate, but we cannot eliminate the risk of cross-contamination.

IMPORTANT COVID-19 REGULATORY INFORMATION:

Due to government parameters in place for Day Camps this season, we ask that you read and initial each statement below:

- My child not be traveling internationally 14 days prior to camp: _____ (initial here)
- I will check my child's temperature daily before dropping him / her off at camp: _____
- We will not carpool children from multiple families and will designate, if possible, one driving member of our household for drop off and pick up: _____
- If my child exhibits any symptoms of COVID-19 or comes into close contact with a confirmed case, I will keep my child home: _____

We will conduct in-person screening for symptoms (fever, cough, shortness of breath, sore throat, runny nose, congestion, headache, or a general feeling of being unwell) daily and will keep records of all campers and staff onsite. In case of a child exhibiting symptoms, he or she will be isolated until you can pick them up.

We will also follow all physical distancing, hand hygiene, food preparation, and sanitization recommendations.

Unfortunately, a confirmed case of COVID-19 onsite would mean the cancellation of the camp for everyone. Please respect the guidelines in place to ensure the health and enjoyment of all involved.

WAIVER / RELEASE FORM

We, the undersigned, agree to hold Meadowlodge Bible Camp, its employees, trustees, officers, volunteers and agents harmless from any claims, damages, losses and/or expenses arising out of our participation, and the participation of those in our care, in camp activities, and to assume all liability for any and all personal injury, bodily injury, illness or property damage that occurs as a result of participation in such camp activities. Signature of this agreement also warrants that participation in this camp is voluntary and that the participants understand the inherent risks involved in the camp's activities. The participants understand that these risks exist despite camp safety precautions and procedures and the participants agree to obey all rules and policies mandated by camp personnel.
